Short presentation

Moritz Kinzel studied architecture and heritage conservation in Berlin at the TFH Berlin and TU Berlin. He holds a PhD in building archaeology from the Technical University Berlin (2011). Since 2011 he lives with his family in Denmark. He has worked on various archaeological projects in the Middle East, e.g. Yemen, Syria, Jordan, and Turkey, but also as an architect in Germany. His building archaeological research is focusing on Near Eastern Neolithic architecture e.g. at Göbekli Tepe in Turkey or Shkârat Msaied in Jordan.
